

SYA5625 Proseminar in Sociology
Department of Sociology, Florida State University
Spring 2009

Professor Irene Padavic
Class meeting time: Tuesday 12:45-1:45
Office Hours: Tuesday 2:00-3:00 and by appointment
Office: 526 Bellamy
Phone: 644-6416
email: ipadavic@fsu.edu

The “pro” in proseminar stands for professional, and the course is designed to help you become a professional sociologist. The course offers a forum for learning about the craft of sociology, and students should feel free to raise questions about the profession and about the program at FSU.

Grading is S/U. There is certainly an expectation that you come. Missing more than one class without a valid excuse is a problem.

January 6 Irene Padavic
January 13: John Reynolds
January 20: Pat Martin
January 27: Anne Barrett
February 3: Marguerite Foxon on “How to Herd Cats: Meeting Management 101” in Devoe Moore
February 10 Peggy Giordano from Bowling Green State University, in Devoe Moore
February 17: Jim Orcutt on Publishing
February 24: State-jobs panel: Heidi Fox, Deana Gore
March 3: John Reynolds workshop on the job market in DeVoe Moore
March 10: SPRING BREAK!
March 17: John Taylor
March 24: Janice McCabe
March 31: no class (Southern Sociological Society starts on Wed.)
April 7: Student Panel on Preliminary examinations (participants to be announced)
April 14: Koji Ueno
April 21: TBA